

Thursday, August 4, 2005

9:00 – 15:00

The Aula

Orwellian Follow-up Symposium on Socio-Political Control and Development

Keynote Addresses

Joint Chair: Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS/University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada
Prof. Ayten Aydin, IIAS, Rome, Italy
Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Tokyo, Japan

Orwellian Economy

by Prof. Wiktor H. Adamkiewicz, IIAS and Maritime University, Gdynia, Poland

For New Wine, We Need - and Offer - New Bottles

by Profs. C. A. Hilgartner<sup>1</sup>, Weld S. Carter<sup>1</sup>, Jr., and Martha A. Bartter<sup>2</sup>, <sup>1</sup>Hilgartner & Associates, Kirksville, MO, USA; <sup>2</sup>Truman State University, USA

Monopolisation and Manipulation of Television and Mass Communication Media – A Major Threat to Freedom and Democracy

by Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS/University of Windsor, Windsor, Ontario, Canada

Tele-Cybernetics: America's Two-Faced TV, Two Faces Identified

by Dr. G. Arthur Mihram, Princeton, NJ, USA

Solution Unsatisfactory

by Prof. Martha A. Bartter, Truman State University, USA

Lunch Break 11:30 – 13:00

A Collaborative Enquiry into Processes for Creating Sustainable Societies – II

PANEL DISCUSSION AND TUTORIAL WORKSHOP

Organized by:

Profs. Ayten Aydin, IIAS Rome, Italy

Prof. William Graham, IIAS / University of Toronto, Canada

Dr. Andy Hilgartner, Hilgartner and Associates, Kirksville, MO, USA

Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, IIAS / Tokyo International University, Tokyo Japan

Prof. Harry Schwarzlander, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY, USA

Chaired and Moderated by

Prof. Harry Schwarzlander, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY, USA