

Tuesday, August 8, 2006

14:00 – 16:30

Hall E

Special Focus Symposium on Cognitive, Emotive and Ethical Aspects of Decision Making in Humans and in AI – Invited Papers

Chair: Prof. Gertina van Schalkwyk, University of Macau, Macau SAR, China

14:00 Simulation of Group Decision Making Through Emotive Agents
by Profs. Goreti Marreiros and Carlos Ramos, GECAD – Knowledge Engineering & Decision Support Group, Institute of Engineering – Polytechnic of Porto, Portugal and José Neves, University of Minho, Braga, Portugal

14:20 Cognitive, Emotive and Ethical Aspects of Decision Making in Humans and in Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Operational Research
by Dr. Elias O Tembe, Department of Computer Information Systems, University of Dubuque

14:40 The Idea of the Cognisphere - Part III.
by Dr. Yrjö Mikkonen, IIAS, Kastellintie 43, 90230 Oulu, Finland

COFFEE BREAK 15:00 – 15:20

15:20 Social Rules Derive From the Larger, Extra-Human Environment, as Suggested by a Model of Life
by Dr. Richard O. Hammer, Free Nation Foundation, Hillsborough, North Carolina

15:40 Difficulties in Making Decisions: Interplay Between Cognitive and Personality Functioning
by Dr. Khairul Anwar Mastor, Centre for General Studies, Univ. Kebangsaan, Malaysia and Prof. Gertina van Schalkwyk, University of Macau, Macau SAR, China

16:00 Ethical Concerns in Decision-Making for Psychological Services in Macao
by Prof. Gertina J van Schalkwyk, Kay Chang and Emilie Tran, University of Macau, Macau SAR, China