

Tuesday, August 8th, 2006

9:00 – 17:00

Hall B

7th Symposium on Sustainable Development: Theories, Strategies and Global Governance Systems

Chair: Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Japan

Sustainable Development and Worldwide ‘Social Cost’

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Japan

Increasing Absorptive Capacity by Unlearning

by Profs. M. Rebernik, B. Bradac and K. Pusnik, Univeersity of Maribor, Slovenia

‘Finance-in-Society’ and Sustainability

by Prof. Junie Tong, Dalian University of Technology, China

A Dilemma of Cultural Sustainability during Development: A Perspective from a Natural Scientist

by Prof. Jerry LR Chandler, George Mason University, McLean, Virginia, U.S.A

Economic Man and Sustainable Development

by Dr. Toben Larsen, CAST, University of Southern Denmark, Denmark

Bushido for Global Governance

by Prof. Kazuyuki Ohdaira, Ritsumeikan University, Kyoto, Japan

LUNCH BREAK 12:00-14:00

The Architecture of Governing Expertise: Mergence, Unity, Simplicity, Action/Art

by Prof. Tarkko Oksala, Tampere University of Technology, Finland

Mongolian Ger Settlements: Considering City, Context, Culture + Criteria

by Prof. Brian R. Sinclair, University of Calgary, Canada

A New Techno-Economic Development Model: The Case of South Korea

by Prof. Yang-Taek Lim, Hanyang University, South Korea

Drawing Rural Circles: Large Questions in Small Towns

by Prof. Tina Simonton, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia, U.S.A.

Small Enterprises as a Tool for Unemployment Liquidation

by Prof. Wiktor H. Adamkiewicz, Maritime University, Gdynia, Poland

Conservation – Not Migration – the Mission of the Century:

Post-World War II Subversion of Europe and North America

by Dr. Robert John, International Council for Human Ecology and Ethnology, New York, U.S.A.