

Tuesday, August 8, 2006

9:00 – 17:30

Hall D

2nd International Symposium on Urban Revitalization and Social Sustainability

Chair: Professor Greg Andonian, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada

World Urban Forum III and Urban Revitalization & Social Sustainability Competition
by Prof. Greg Andonian, School of Architecture, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada

Japan, Homelessness, Design and the Space of Dignity by Prof. Brian R. Sinclair, Faculty of Environmental Design, University of Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Design Studio: En Route to Social Sustainability & Urban Revitalization by Prof. Michael Brazley, Department of Architecture and Interior Design, College of Applied Sciences and Arts, Carbondale, IL, USA

Critical Environmentalism – Converging Perspectives in the Development of Place: An Integrative Urban Redevelopment Scenario for London’s Lower Lea Valley
by Prof. Craig Anz, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL, USA

LUNCH BREAK 12:00 – 14:00

The Life and Death of the Post-war Islamic City: Critical Environmentalism and the Practice of (Re)-Construction by Prof. Akel Kahera, Prairie View A&M University, TX, USA and Prof. Craig Anz, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL, USA

Hip Hop Architecture in the 21st Century by Prof. Franklin L. Grace, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, USA

Pentad – A Generic Building Block for Innovative Development of New Urban Structures
by Prof. Zeev Pearlman, Faculty of Architecture and Town Planning, Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa, Israel

Round Table Discussion