

Tuesday, July 31, 2007

9:00 – 17:00

Hall B

8th Symposium on Sustainable Development: Theories, Strategies and Global Governance Systems

Chair: Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Japan

Economic Globalization as against Sustainable Development

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Saitama, Japan

Attitudes and Values in Times of Cultural Demise, Perspectives and Suggestions

by Prof. Karel Boullart, University of Gent, Belgium

Research-Action in Human Processes: A Contemporary Way to Take Root in Evolution

by Prof. Rita Micarelli, Polytechnic of Milan; and Prof. Giorgio Pizziolo, University of Firenze, Italy

Omnilateral Sharing: From Europe to Cyberspace

by Dr. Wolfgang Pape, EU-Japan Center, Tokyo, Japan & Brussels, Belgium

Developing Appropriate Research Strategies in Multicultural Societies: A Thought-Frame to Endorse Sustainable Development

by Prof. Sabiha S. Daudi, Northern Illinois University, U.S.A.

LUNCH BREAK 12:00 – 14:00

A Comparison of Contemporary Art's Characteristics and the Problems of Its Conservation with Economic Structures and Their Management

by Dr. Hitrud Schinzel, IIAS, Dusseldorf, Germany

Optimal Economic Growth and Human Capital: Some Implications for the Korean Education System

by Prof. Yang-Taek Lim, Hanyang University, Seoul, South Korea

The Role of Entrepreneur in Socially Responsible Outsourcing

by Profs. Barbara Bradac and Miroslav Rebernik, University of Maribor, Slovenia

Engaging Rapprochement between Conflicting Modes

by Mr. Cristopher Post and Prof. Craig Anz, Southern Illinois University, U.S.A.

Sustainable Development and the Relative Prices of Fossil and Non-fossil Energy

by Dr. Torben Larsen, CAST, Southern Danish University, Denmark