

Tuesday, August 2, 2011

9:00 ~ 17:00

Hall B

12th Symposium on Sustainable Development: Theories, Strategies and Global Governance Systems

Chair: Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, IIAS & Tokyo International University, Japan

Social Time-Space Constraints and Sustainable Development

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, IIAS & Tokyo International University, Japan

Can Sustainable Development become a Youth Practice?

by Prof. Giorgio Pizziolo and Prof. Rita Micarelli, IIAS Florence, Italy

Sustainable Development: Towards a New Universal Democracy

by Dr. Frank R. Hassard, IIAS, UK

Electromediative Society: Challenges for Sustainable Development

by Prof. Tarkko Oksala, IIAS & Aalto University, Finland

Social Entrepreneurship as Remedy for Growing Uncertainty

by Profs. M. Rebernik, P. Tominc & K. Pusnik, University of Maribor, Slovenia

Growth and the Finite Earth

by Prof. Wim Smit, HAN University, the Netherland

LUNCH BREAK 12:00~14:00

Systems Approach to Science and Spirituality

by Prof. Tadeja Jere Lazanski, University of Primorska, Slovenia

Myth as Basis for National Identity Emancipation in Tourism (1)

by Prof. Romana Franjic, Vern – Zagreb School of Management, Croatia

Managing Tourist Destination through Innovation and Competition in Globalization Environment (2)

by Prof. Romana Franjic, Vern – Zagreb School of Management, Croatia

The Recent Economic Performances of Central Banks in the Seminal Development Country and the Earliest Advanced in Asia: Bank of Mongolia and Bank of Japan

by Ms. Chinbat Dejeekhuu, Ph.D. candidate, Osaka University, and Prof. Yukio Ito, Osaka University of Economics, Osaka, Japan

The Multinational Platform Challenge

by Prof. Maria Niculiu, University of Bucharest & Prof. Tudor Niculiu, University Politehnica of Bucharest, Romania

Information and Sustainability

by Prof. John Hiller, University of Sydney, Australia