

Wednesday, August 2, 2017

09:00 – 17:30

Hall B

18th Symposium on Sustainable Development:

Theories, Strategies and Global Governance Systems

Chaired by:

Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, IIAS & Tokyo International University

A Narrow Pathway to Sustainable Development

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, IIAS, Canada & Tokyo International University, Japan

The Improbability of Sustainable Conclusions to Unsustainable Premises Examined through Passages from John Lock's Social Contract

by Prof. Taha A. Al-Douri, New York Institute of Technology, New York, U.S.A.

Sustainability Agenda: Veiled Issues' Explorations

by Dr. Peter Mbaeyi, Offenbach, Germany

The State of Democracy, Justice and Legal Environment in the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic

by Mr. Jiri Plicka, HABEAS CORPUS, Prague, Czech Republic

Wakeful State, Dream, Deep Sleep

by Prof. Debabrata Chatterjee, Retired Consultant General, NHS, England

Taming the Governing Strategies of the Ongoing Socio-economic Development by the Way of G-Localization

by Prof. Ayten Aydin, Former UN/FAO Senior Adviser, Rome, Italy

Lunch Break: 12:30~14:00

The Eco-Therapy: An Evolutive Instrument for the Contemporary World

by Prof. Giorgio Pizziolo & Prof. Rita Micarelli, IIAS, Italy

Mongolia Meaning Modernity: Freedom to Define Progress + Space to Set Directions

by Prof. Brian R. Sinclair & Ms Yanjinlkhambum Tumurbaatar, University of Calgary, Canada

The Displaced

by Prof. John Hiller, University of Sydney, Australia

Architectural Project Sociology

by Prof. Tarkko Oksala, IIAS & Aalto University, and Prof. Susanna Toivanen, University of Stockholm, Finland

The Global Governance Illusion

by Dr. Bernard Teiling, Retired Vice President of Nestle, Switzerland

Regenerative and Adaptive Community Development: Multi-level Ecosystem Resources, Reconstructive Practices and Resilience Planning by Prof. Craig Anz, Virginia Commonwealth University Qatar, and Prof. Marjorie Brooks & Prof. Rolando Gonzalez-Torres, Southern Illinois University, U.S.A.