

Thursday, July 29, 2004

9:00 – 12:00

Hall H

Symposium on Comparative and Integrative Medicine

Chair: Prof. Karl W. Kratky, Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

Session 1:

Stress as a Major Cause of Modern Illnesses

by Prof. Helmut Sauer, IIAS, Waldbronn-Reichenbach, Germany

Typical Woman, Typical Man

by Dr. Juergen Heines, 18 Ave. Abbe Guichard, Chateleillon / Plage, France

Human Types: Relationship between Yin / Yang and Vagotonia / Sympathicotonia

by Dr. Said Ibrahim and Prof. Karl W. Kratky, Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

The CAMbase-Literature-Database – A XML-based Approach towards Published Evidence in Complementary Medicine

by Dr. Thomas Ostermann¹, Dr. Hartmut Zillmann² and Prof. Peter F. Matthiessen¹

¹ Faculty of Medicine, University of Witten / Herdecke, Germany

² Intelligent Data Management IDM, Osnabrueck, Germany

Attitudes to Complementary Medicine among General Practitioners in Vienna, Austria

by Dr. Said Ibrahim and Prof. Karl W. Kratky,
Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

Friday, July 30, 2004

9:00 – 17:00

Hall H

Symposium on Comparative and Integrative Medicine

Chair: Prof. Karl W. Kratky, Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

Session 2:

Chronobiology and Cross-Cultural Medicine I:

Physiological Changes during a Day, a Week, a Year and a Life

by Prof. Karl W. Kratky, Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

Chronobiology and Cross-Cultural Medicine II: Typical Course of an Illness

by Prof. Karl W. Kratky, Faculty of Physics, University of Vienna, Austria

Salutogenesis – a New Paradigm in Medicine

by Prof. Helmut Sauer, IIAS, Waldbronn-Reichenbach, Germany

Markov Chains in Medical Research – A Methodological Contribution for the Evaluation of Outcome Effects in Tinnitus Treatment with Music Therapy

by Dr. Thomas Ostermann¹, Dr. M. Kusatz² and Dr. D. Aldridge¹

¹ Faculty of Medicine, University of Witten / Herdecke, Germany

² Tinnitus Therapy Center (TTZ), Krefeld & Duesseldorf, Germany

Using Systems Thinking to Diagnose and Improve Trauma Care Services

by Prof. James T. Ziegenfuss,

Pennsylvania State University, Middletown, PA, U.S.A.

LUNCH BREAK: 12:00 – 14:30

Session 3:

Are There Real Differences in Medical Treatment of Men and Women?

by Prof. Helmut Sauer, IIAS, Waldbronn-Reichenbach, Germany

Male Patients are Less Interested in Spirituality. Result of an Open Survey with the SpREUK Questionnaire

by Dr. Arndt Buessing, Dr. Thomas Ostermann and Prof. Peter F. Matthiessen,

Faculty of Medicine, University of Witten / Herdecke, Herdecke, Germany

Psychosomatic Medicine I: Boosting Immunity through Conditioning and Mind Control

by Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS, University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada

O LE FOFO – The Healers of Samoa

by Dr. Christian Lehner, Institute of Ethnomedicine, Mattersburg, Austria

DISCUSSION