

Friday, July 30, 2004

13:30 –17:30

Hall E

FORUM 2004

On Individual Freedom and Individual Responsibility Balancing Society's Requirements and Individual Needs

Chair: Dr. Robert Justin, IIAS, Detroit, Michigan, United States

Welcoming Remarks and Introduction

by Dr. Robert Justin, Symposium Chairman, IIAS, Detroit, Michigan, USA, and by Prof. George E. Lasker, Conference Chairman, IIAS, Windsor, Ontario, Canada

Up-bringing: Impinging upon an Individual's Freedom or Purposeful Socialization?

by Dr. Olga S. Fomichova, IIAS and the Moscow Children and Teenagers Palace for Creative Work, Moscow, Russia

Building Capacity for Collectives and Individuals Beyond the Language of Needs

by Dr. Martha Vahl, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Individual's and Society's Conflicting Objectives for Natural Resource Management

by Prof. Lidia Zadnik Stirn, University of Ljubljana, Ljubljana, Slovenia

Strategies in Negotiation of Conflicts in a Marathi Wedding Ritual

by Ms. Helen Toraskar, ESL Lecturer, HKU-SPACE Community College, HKU, Hong Kong

Learning by Contrast: Mathematical Metaphors in Politics

by Prof. Jorge Carrera, National University of Mexico, (UNAM), Mexico City D. F., Mexico

A High Level Look at Individual Freedoms – The Responsibilities Associated with Those Freedoms and the Needs of Society

by Dr. Robert Justin, IIAS, Detroit, Michigan, USA